1. Core cover

Third-party liability

Covers sums the insured must legally pay for accidental bodily injury or property damage caused to third parties while using the insured vehicle.

Collision

Covers accidental direct damage to the insured vehicle following collision, impact, overturning, or leaving the road. A EUR 500 deductible applies to each event.

Theft and attempted theft

Covers loss of the vehicle or direct damage caused by theft or attempted theft. The vehicle must be locked and all available anti-theft devices must be activated when unattended.

Fire

Covers direct damage caused by fire, lightning, explosion, or short circuit, excluding damage caused only to electrical components by wear.

2. Limits and assistance

Replacement vehicle

A category B replacement car is available for up to 10 consecutive days after a covered theft or collision when repairs require more than eight labor hours.

Roadside assistance

One roadside intervention per event is covered, including towing to the nearest suitable repairer, up to EUR 300.

Glass

Repair or replacement of windscreen, rear window, and side windows is covered up to EUR 1,000 per policy year. A EUR 100 deductible applies to replacement; repair has no deductible.

Claim notification

The insured must notify the insurer within three working days of becoming aware of an event and provide available photographs, police reports, and repair estimates.

3. Main exclusions

Unlicensed or impaired driving

No cover applies when the driver has no valid license or is over the legal alcohol or drug limit, except where the vehicle was used without the insured's knowledge.

Racing and commercial use

Damage arising during racing, speed trials, track use, paid passenger transport, or vehicle rental is excluded unless expressly endorsed.

Wear and mechanical failure

Mechanical or electrical breakdown, corrosion, gradual deterioration, defective maintenance, and ordinary wear are excluded unless directly caused by another covered event.

Personal belongings

Cash, documents, phones, luggage, and other property left in the vehicle are not covered under this sample policy.
